Highlights

Hanseatic Lubeck and Wismar Private Tour

Typical Merchant's Houses 15 min

Traditional red brick houses are the special feature of all Hansaetic towns. Lubeck has a great number of those carefully preserved.

St. Mary's Church

20 min

St. Mary's Church in Lübeck was built between 1250 and 1350. It has always been a symbol of the power and prosperity of the old Hanseatic city and is situated at the highest point of the island that forms the old town of Lübeck

Wismar Market Square

As Wismar was the second founding town of the Hanseatic Trade league, the center of the old town is the huge Market Place, one of the largest in northern Germany, surrounded by elegant buildings with styles ranging from 14th-century North German Gothic to 19th-century Romanesque Revival to Art Nouveau.
