Highlights

Hanseatic Rostock & Schwerin Join-in Shore Excursion

Typical Merchant's Houses
10 min

Traditional red brick houses are the special feature of all Hansaetic towns. Wismar has a great number of those carefully preserved.

Schwerin Castle
30 min

It is one of the most beautiful German palaces, built on the spectacular island on the lake, linked by the bridges to the mainland. Legend tells of a ghost, Petermännchen ('Peterman'), who is believed to walk the hallways and resembles a cavalier in 17th-century dress. The castle can be visited with the pre-booked guided tour. Don't forget to walk in the unbelievable park of the palace.

Schwerin Cathedral
20 min

These days, Schwerin Cathedral is one of the main landmarks of the area because of the tall, 117-meters high tower which can be seen from far away. As old as the city itself, Schwerin Cathedral was formerly a Roman Catholic cathedral dedicated to the Virgin Mary and Saint John.
