Cette visite guidée comprend le palais Catherine tournée avec le monde de la célèbre Chambre d'Ambre et les jardins environnants. Catherine Palais et les parcs ont été créés par le biais du 18ème siècle et est devenue la maison à beaucoup d'impératrices russes, y compris Catherine la grande, de sorte qu'il est aussi connu comme "le village du tsar" (Tsarskoïe Selo). La voisine Galerie Cameron a une vue magnifique sur le parc et de la Agate de la Salle. Fermé le tue et le dernier Lundi du mois.

Le métro (métro) Tour

20 min

Entrer dans la clandestinité et profiter de palais construits pour les gens ordinaires - c'est incroyable comment les Stations de Métro sont à Saint-Petersbourg. Chrystal des lustres, des œuvres de bronze, marbre au sol, d'étonnantes sculptures et de mosaïques. Pourquoi visiter un autre palais? Les premières stations ont été ouvertes en 1955, les nouveaux ouverte chaque année, toujours riche et impressionnant.

La Cathédrale saint-Isaac

20 min

La Cathédrale saint-Isaac est dédié à Pierre le Grand, saint favori. C'est la plus grande cathédrale de la Russie et se classe parmi les plus grandes cathédrales du monde. Il a été construit entre 1818 et 1858, pour être l'un des plus impressionnants monuments de la capitale Impériale russe. Ce n'est pas seulement la structure géante, mais aussi la collecte de la plus grande d'innovations techniques.

Musée De L'Ermitage

120 min

L'ermitage est l'un des plus grands musées du monde. Mais c'est aussi le magnifique palais Royal avec la superbe des chambres et des vues incroyables. La collection a commencé en tant que projet de la Grande Catherine en 1764. Maintenant, c'est le temple de l'art, où vous pouvez voir les œuvres de Raphaël, Titien, Rembrandt, de Goya et de nombreux autres grands peintres de tous les coins du monde.

Les rivières et les Canaux, excursion en Bateau

60 min

Le jour ou la nuit, la vue la plus spectaculaire de Saint-Petersbourg peut être vu à partir de l'eau. Ce sont des panoramas inoubliables de l'Hermitage, les places et les quais de seine. Saint-Petersbourg est entouré par l'eau et entrelacé avec un réseau complexe de rivières et de canaux qui semblent lier la ville, tout en marquant les frontières de ses différents quartiers et les quartiers.

Peterhof Imperial park et palais

120 min

Elle est l'un des plus beaux Palais Impériaux. Une combinaison complexe de Baroque et Néo-Classique des styles, ce palais est un véritable joyau de l'architecture russe, et vous allez sûrement aimer. Des centaines de fontaines et de statues d'or surround Peter's Palace – c'est la Russie's Versailles.

Peter and Paul Fortress & Cathedral

15 min

This fortress, built to deflect Swedish raids, was the city's very first structure. While the view from the fortress ramparts is fantastic, the main attraction is Trezzini's Peter and Paul Cathedral. Almost all Romanovs including Nicholas II, are buried here. There are several other museums scattered around the fortress grounds, like the political prison museum or St. Petersburg history exhibition and you can buy a special day ticket which enables access to all.

Church on the Spilled Blood

20 min

The symbol of Saint Petersburg - onion-domed cathedral that stands out from the neo-classical surroundings of the city-center. The church is decorated with lots of mosaics inside and outside, the domes are covered with colorful enamels. The church was built on the very place where Tsar Alexander II was mortally wounded in 1881.
