Klaipeda Old Town
10 min

Klaipėda's Old Town is different from the rest of Lithuania since it has a lot of German and Scandinavian architecture. The buildings are charming; there is the planned street structure, which can't be found in any other old town in Lithuania. Its streets are geometrically configured very correctly, and the angle of intersection is always straight.

Juodkrantė
50 min

Juodkrantė (Black Shore) is a quiet seaside resort village on the Curonian Spit, located on the bank of Curonian lagoon. It is the second largest settlement on Lithuania's part of the spit. It's very famous for the large collection of wooden sculptures by various artists is displayed on the Hill of Witches. Most of the figures are based on Lithuanian legends or folk tales.

Curonian Spit
120 min

The Curonian Spit is a 98 km long, thin, curved sand-dune spit that separates the Curonian Lagoon from the Baltic Sea coast. The spit is about 1 mile wide. It is famous for its large sand dunes and "dancing trees", twisted by the wind force.

Cormorant and Herons Colony
40 min

The Curonian Spit has plenty of wildlife. The legend is that herons have nested near Juodkrantė since 17th century, but the cormorants arrived only at the beginning of 19th century. The colony consists of about 2000 pairs of the large great cormorant and about 500 pairs of grey heron. The special observation spot allows watching the life of the colony without disturbing birds. Please note there are about 50 steep steps to get to the observation spot.

Detailed Program

08:15 - 08:30

Meet your guide and driver outside the main port gate.

08:30 - 11:30

We will start our tour on a ferry, crossing the Curonian Lagoon until we reach the Curonian Spit itself. Being a 98-km long stretch of land, it mainly consists of sandy beaches which split European continent from the Baltic Sea. Locals adore Curonian sceneries because of romantic sceneries of pine woods, which are an important part of Baltic nature. The scientists believe that Curonian Spit has been formed around 6000 years ago because of the sand accumulation in waters near the coast. Years later, fishermen have built their settlements here and in the 21st century those have become some kind of SPA resorts.

11:30 - 12:30

The next stop of the tour is Juodkrante, where the Hill of Witches is located. There, you will be able to visit the wooden statues of local heroes, including Nida - the resort of serene beauty. Nida is called the Lithuanian Sahara because of its 50-metres high dunes formed in the 19th century. Thomas Mann, a famous German writer, constructed his summer house in this region and now it is a museum dedicated to the author.

12:30 - 13:30

Break for lunch at city cafe / restaurant in Nida (self-paid)

13:30 - 14:30

Back way to the port of Klaipeda. En-route you'll make a photo-stop in the heart of Old Town - Theatre Square with "Ann from Tharaw" fountain and drama theatre. Here you will get to know about the old town of Klaipėda, street layout features, architecture and history.

14:30 - 14:45
